

DOUGLAS JOHNSON of Bloomington, In., has had a lifetime of dedication to the sport of purebred dogs. Breeding under the world-famous Clussexx prefix, he has produced more than 250 AKC Champion Clumber Spaniels, Sussex Spaniels, Welsh Springer Spaniels, English Toy Spaniels and Pekingese.

He has a passion for breeding dogs and continues to run a top breeding program today. His Current passion is the English Toy Spaniel and has successfully built a kennel which includes 4 all-breed best in show winners, two National Specialty winners and several group winning dogs.

He respects the time-honored traditions of showing and the history of the individual breeds. As most of you already know, Mr. Johnson takes his time in the ring very seriously, he is committed to doing his best and will always adjudicate fairly and to his own beliefs. Not shy of opinions, Mr. Johnson has a true vision of the breeds he is approved to judge and stays consistent in his desire to reward top quality. Mr. Johnson's breeder focused judging has made him a popular judge for all breed and specialty shows. Thank you to the membership for their consideration.

MALCOLM MOORE started showing dogs in 1969. He finished his first Bred By Exhibitor Pekingese Champion in 1972 and most of his dogs were finished from the Bred By class. Several of these dogs won groups, group placements, Specialties and all breed Best In Shows. During his time as a handler he has shown many top winning Pekingese.

He has held office in several dog clubs and has been show chairman for three clubs as well as show chairman for Montgomery Kennel Club for 28 years.

Mr. Moore started judging Pekingese in 2002 and now has two groups and is working on more breeds. He judged The Pekingese Club of America in 2006 and he would be very honored to be considered to judge again.

DON SUTTON is a retired Comptroller for Lone Star Company an employee owned Liquor & Wine Distributor in Dallas, Texas. He has also owned a Dog & Cat Grooming Shop selling dog and cat supplies and most recently has been heavily involved in the 'Used Car' business in Dallas, TX. In addition, Don is very active in the Texas Kennel Club- All Breed Club, the Dallas Fort Worth Toy Dog Group Club, the Pekingese Club of Texas and the Pekingese

Association of New York, currently holding a position as an office in all clubs.

Don Sutton (SUTTON PLACE PEKINGESE) has been involved in the Pekingese breed for over 40+ years. Over the years Don has been very fortunate to enjoy many successes in his life. One success, which he has mutually shared with his Life Partner, Dr. Steve Keating, included breeding and owning one of the most wonderful breeds of dogs – the Pekingese. Over the years while actively breeding they had the privilege of owning and handling to title 36 Pekingese champions, of which 24 of those were OWNER, BREEDER and HANDLED to title. Of great special joy and happiness has been the thrill and honor of owning and handling English, American, and International Champion – Rosayleen “The Gaffer” at Sunsalve, bred by Mrs. Eileen Newman and handled in England to 14 Championship Certificates by Mr. Terry Nethercott of Sunsalve fame near London England.

As an American Kennel Club (AKC) judge, Don Sutton is approved for three groups - Sporting Group, Toy Group, Non-Sporting Group, Junior Showmanship, Manchester Terriers and Miscellaneous Breeds, as well as Best-in-Show.
